

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary right before the election is a blatant disregard for their duties to serve the public.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and it is high time to make sure they are fulfilling that duty.

If we needed more partisanship, then we could just listen to neoconservative radio or watch Fox news. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
